Foreword

Each day, early and late,
more than five hundred
endlessly busy Cougars gathered in clusters and crowds . . .
joined in routine daily affairs
of classes and clubs . . .
shared in the anticipation of plans and projects
and the excitement of
dances and parties;
as together, we experienced
the good and bad,
joy and tears,
victory and defeat
all of the moments that combined to form the year that was "the best."

Dedication

Mrs. Cecelia Cavanaugh

It is an honor to pay tribute to one who has become such a genuine part of Crafton High School in one short year. Her interest in her students and her sparkling school spirit have endeared her to all who have come under her influence. Because she means so much to so many, we the students of C.H.S. dedicate the 1965 Ginkgo to Mrs. Cecelia Cavanaugh.

How can we ever forget our Senior year, so filled with success? Never has a year passed as quickly as this one. We look back on it with wonder that so much excitement could have been crammed into nine short months. And now, suddenly, we face the great unknown . . . the Future. What can be more thrilling, more exciting than the past years? We wonder, what is there left to anticipate. Loyal and truehearted,
Let us boost for Crafton High.
We revere her and defend her
As her colors proudly fly.
We will stand for her united;
Of her deeds we'll gladly tell,
Her colors streaming,
Bright faces beaming,
So here's a cheer for her
That we all love so well.
Joyous and ever loyal,
Let us boost for Crafton High;
Let every heart sing;
Let every voice ring;
There's no time to grieve and sigh.
It's ever onward, our course pursuing,
Let defeat ne'er our ardor cool;
But united we will boost for her—
Our Crafton High!

Senior Class Play

..... this year was a mystery-comedy in three acts. It was called Murder at Random and featured Jerry Bittner as Harold, a typical high school boy, left alone in a New England farmhouse with an assorted band of murderers and their corpse. The play was presented April 22 and 23 and was enthusiastically received both evenings by the large crowds. Working on the play was a rewarding, enjoyable experience for all connected with it. Many seniors were able to participate in the production by being on the committees and by displaying their talents during intermission. The faculty sponsor was Mrs. Cavanaugh and the student director was Ellen Troppman.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

President: Roy Shaffer

Vice-President: Mary Lynn Bishop

Secretary-Treasurer: Sandy Schooley

We completed a successful junior year with poise and eagerness to inherit the charmed title of "senior." We feel we have earned the respect of the school in our first role as upperclassmen.

In our fine class play we proved our worth as actors. Our majorettes and cheerleaders, by their enthusiasm and strong school spirit, were a great asset to our class. We proudly cheered our athletes on to victory in all school sports. We sponsored a lovely prom, and with great delight displayed our class rings. Now, most of all, we relish the thought of reaching the summit of our careers at CHS, and look forward to those ever-famous words, "Seniors first."

Sophomores

As Sophomores our class really began to move. No longer were we only spectators, but now we took an active part in everything. Our boys were well represented in football and basketball and some of our girls made the cheerleading squad and majorettes. We were proud of our swinging folk-singing group, the Ridgerunners. However, we also spent plenty of time in classes. We had a "new" kind of English class with Mr. Chieffe and many of us tried our hands as chemists. Everything was exciting and now, with these pleasant memories behind us, we eagerly anticipate our Junior year.

Freshmen

Being Freshmen was not bad at all . . . in fact it was fun! This year we were really members of Crafton High. With this new sense of belonging, we cheered excitedly at games and pep rallies. Even the mysterious Unholy 3 who sharpened the spirit of the whole school came from our class. Our Frosh basketball team fought like true Cougars as we cheered them on. Everything about this year seemed exciting. With this experience behind us, we hope the next three years well be even greater.

Chorus

Under the direction of Mr. Jerry Veeck another busy year has passed for the chorus. It presented three lively programs this year. During American Education Week the chorus sang for parents and friends visiting the school. Then together with the Junior High Chorus, it presented a Christmas program of both sacred and secular music. Much time and work were spent on the annual Spring Festival in May which was received with much enthusiasm. The chorus increased in number this year and the members had an enjoyable and sometimes hectic time practicing for the Programs.

MR. JERRY VEECK

SENIOR GIRLS' SEXTET: Louey Munro, Elaine Grant, Kassy Meannor, Ellen Troppman, Eileen Pendergast and Nancy Thomas combined their talents to form a sextet. Not only did they sing in the choral programs and school assemblies, but they also received invitations to sing for church and women's groups.

A SOPHOMORE BOYS' QUARTET: Bill Jahnke, Scott Ullman, Jim Munn, Bob Price, practice up with Mr. Veeck.

During the year, besides halftime shows, the band added gaiety and spirit to the bonfire, and parades, and were the guests of the Band Parents Association at the Band Dance. At the Annual Band Spring Concert, presented in April, both popular and classical music were played. The Band closed out the year by playing for the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises. We are always appreciative of the fine work of Mr. Graham and his band members.

The Ginkgo Staff worked many long hours in order to produce the 1965 Ginkgo. Room 202 served as a workshop for the busy seniors who could often be seen working after school. Though Mr. Schroth often became frustrated about lost articles, and deadlines crept up too quickly, we of the staff feel that we have produced one of the better and most original Ginkgos ever. Our advertising campaign got off to a great start this year with an assembly featuring our Emperor of Ogknig. This proved to be a successful gimmick for acquiring subscriptions. For the members of the 1965 Ginkgo Staff, publishing the yearbook was a challenging and unforgettable experience.

Although the Cougars had high expectations for 1964, early injuries and a weak defense accounted for a disappointing 20-7 season. Their first victory over Avonworth broke a twenty game losing streak. The season was highlighted by an exciting 13-6 homecoming victory over Etna.

Varsity Basketball

This year the C.H.S. Varsity led by high scorer Sam Hutchins, fought to a 8-14 record. After a successful exhibition season, the Cougars had a disappointing record in tough B-22. Never lacking in offense, many times they lacked defense against strong opposition. Although their record is not the best, it is not a just indication of the hustling, scrappy ball played by our boys.

The C.H.S. JayVees had a 10 and 11 record for the 64-65 season. This was considered by all to be an effort of the highest caliber. Most of the team looks forward to an even more successful season next year. Coach Dropscho commented, "Experience gained now will help us next year!" We can only say, "We hope so, too."

Under the direction of Mr. Derrickson the Junior High team wound up with a record of 8 wins and 6 losses. It was the first time in four years that any C.H.S. "Frosh" team has done this. With such a team as this, C.H.S. can look forward to many more good basketball teams.

Boys' Tennis Team

Cheerleaders

Due to the efforts of the cheerleaders, the Crafton Cougars can count on plenty of support from the crowds. Even when the competition is tough or the team seems to lack that drive, the cheerleaders keep the flame of hope burning in the hearts of all loyal fans. Their vim and vigor urge Crafton's team to victory. Their lusty yells fill every silence.

Precision!
